Reading for Real

YOUR INVITATION TO TAKE PART

A unique approach to teaching layers of meaning in reading through dialogic teaching and other principles

EBOR Teaching
Hope Schools
Alliance

Education Pathways is the primary phase CPD and training arm of EborHope Teaching Schools Alliance, operated by Ebor Academy Trust and open to all schools

Reading for Real is a flexible approach to teaching reading.

It is a pedagogical model designed to support classroom practitioners in ensuring all threads of teaching reading are incorporated in their sessions. Reading for Real provides a comprehensive guide to the different processes that should feature regularly when reading a text with children.

The approach supports teachers to use high quality texts with their children, encouraging engagement, enjoyment and deeper understanding.

IMPRESSIVE OUTCOMES

Six schools across Yorkshire and The Humber are currently receiving high quality coaching from Nikki Gamble where staff are being trained to support the next wave of schools. While Reading for Real is new to this area, similar Just Imagine programmes have resulted in impressive outcomes from schools elsewhere in the country.

Your school could be one of the 12 schools being accepted in the first formal wave, which starts imminently.

WHAT YOUR SCHOOL WILL RECEIVE

- CPD for up to two Year 5 teachers (Reading for Real plus the CPD programme detailed on page 4)
- Bespoke training from highly skilled SLEs and coaches
- Access to support network and resources
- Evaluation to measure impact with the support of Huntington Research School, York
- £1,280-worth of relevant Just Imagine CPD on reading (see page 4)

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

£3,000 per school for four terms.

To book, email l.jackson@ebor.academy with a purchase order number.

Just Imagine...

Just Imagine is a centre of excellence for reading, delivering professional development across the UK and internationally.

Education Pathways is part of the EborHope Teaching Schools Alliance, working with Just Imagine to deliver high quality CPD for all school staff from EYFA to secondary phase – anyone who wants to further develop their knowledge of children's books in this area.

The cost is £100 per delegate for the day session and £35 for the twilight session. We will invoice you.

Irrespective of your school or multi-academy trust status, this is a valuable network opportunity open to everyone.

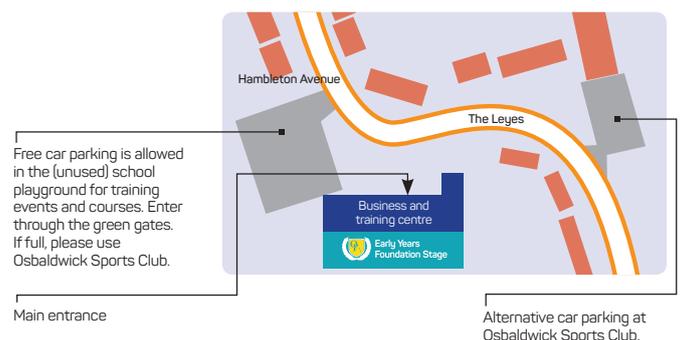

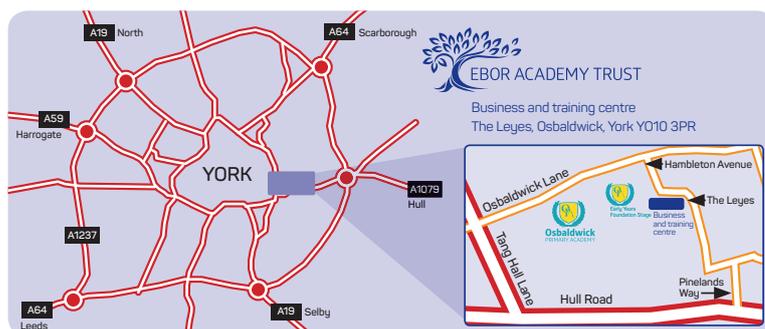

The twilight sessions will focus on different aspects of children's literature and run for an hour and a half. The sessions will be informal, a short presentation about key aspects of the genre and salient issues along with some great new books to look at and plenty of opportunities for colleagues to share their experiences as well. The aim is to build subject knowledge and subject pedagogy.

This session will be held at Robert Wilkinson Primary Academy*
